MUSIC NOTES

Hymn writers John Bell (b.1949) and Graham Maule (b.1958) are members of the Iona Community, in Scotland, an ecumenical Christian group known for its commitment to renewal in the church's worship, and to issues of peace and justice. Their hymn, "Praise with joy the world's Creator" (TIS 179) was first sung at the opening worship service for the World Student Christian Federation at Giles Cathedral in Edinburgh in 1985. The hymn is sung to the tune, "Lauda anima" ("Praise my soul") written by John Goss (1800-1880,) an organist at St Paul's Cathedral, London. "It was said that he never began a composition without first asking for God's blessing upon his work."

Scottish Jesuit priest, Fr James Quinn SJ (1919-2010) wrote many hymns after the Second Vatican Council (1962-1965) and was actively involved in ecumenical activities. It has been said that "Fr Quinn had the ability to articulate aspects of the faith in new and fresh ways," and that "his hymns and paraphrases help us better understand the mystery and presence of God in our world today." His hymn, "Father of mercy, God of consolation" (TIS 472) is a prayer for help, healing and forgiveness. It is sung to the music of an old French church melody, "Christe sanctorum."

Born in The Netherlands, hymn writer Fred Kaan (1929-2009) lived through the Nazi occupation as a child. He was ordained in the United Reformed Church in England and was passionately committed to working for, and praying for peace. He passed away after a long struggle with cancer and Alzheimer's disease. Entitled Hymn of Acceptance, "Help us accept each other" (TIS 648) has been described as "one of the most powerful hymns on reconciliation and forgiveness composed in the last half of the 20th century." Fred Kaan wrote: "One of the greatest dangers about a life of faith is the danger of there being a gap between word and deed, between worship and service, between prayer and doing our utmost to make that prayer come true."

Michael Thwaites (1915-2005) was a distinguished Australian poet and Rhodes Scholar to Oxford. His wife, Honor Mary (1914-1993) was a graduate from Melbourne University with honours in French and German. During World War II Honor assisted victims of Nazi persecution to escape to freedom in Britain. Michael and Honor together wrote the hymn, "Lord of earth and all creation" (TIS 672), which was originally titled, "For Australia." It was first sung at their church, St John the Baptist Church in Canberra, in November 1986. It has also been sung at many national services, including an Anzac Day service in Westminster Abbey and the opening of the new Parliament House by Queen Elizabeth II in May 1988.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN: "Praise with joy the world's Creator"

Sunday 7:00am (verses 1, 3, 4), and 9:00am

Welcome:

The Lord be with you.

And also with you

PRAYER OF THE DAY:

God of compassion,
you have shown us in Christ
that your love is never ending:
enable us both to love you with all our heart
and to love one another as Christ loved us.
Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT READING: Deuteronomy 18:15-20

The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own people; you shall heed such a prophet. This is what you requested of the LORD your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly when you said: 'If I hear the voice of the LORD my God any more, or ever again see this great fire, I will die.' Then the LORD replied to me: 'They are right in what they have said. I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their own people; I will put my words in the mouth of the prophet, who shall speak to them everything that I command. Anyone who does not heed the words that the prophet shall speak in my name, I myself will hold accountable. But any prophet who speaks in the name of other gods, or who presumes to speak in my name a word that I have not commanded the prophet to speak—that prophet shall die.'

PSALM: 111

Response: The Lord is majestic and glorious.

O praise the Lord. I will praise the Lord
with my whole heart:
in the company of the upright
and among the congregation.

The works of the Lord are great:

and studied by all who take delight in them..... Response

His deeds are majestic and glorious:

and his righteousness stands for ever.

His marvellous acts have won him a name

to be remembered:

the Lord is gracious and merciful..... Response

He gives food to those that fear him:

he remembers his covenant for ever.

He showed his people the power of his acts:

in giving them the heritage of the heathen..... Response

The works of his hands are faithful and just:

and all his commandments are sure;

They stand firm for ever and ever:

they are done in faithfulness and in truth..... Response

He sent redemption to his people,

he ordained his covenant for ever:

holy is his name and worthy to be feared.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom,

and of good understanding are those that keep his commandments:

his praise shall endure for ever..... Response

NEW TESTAMENT READING: 1 Corinthians 8:1-13

Now concerning food sacrificed to idols: we know that ‘all of us possess knowledge.’ Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. Anyone who claims to know something does not yet have the necessary knowledge; but anyone who loves God is known by him. Hence, as to the eating of food offered to idols, we know that ‘no idol in the world really exists’, and that ‘there is no God but one.’ Indeed, even though there may be so-called gods in heaven or on earth—as in fact there are many gods and many lords— yet for us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things and for whom we exist, and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things and through whom we exist. It is not everyone, however, who has this knowledge. Since some have become so accustomed to idols until now, they still think of the food they eat as food offered to an idol; and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. ‘Food will not bring us close to God.’ We are no worse off if we do not eat, and no better off if we do. But take care that this liberty of yours does not somehow become a stumbling-block to the weak. For if others see you, who possess knowledge, eating in the temple of an idol, might they not, since their conscience is weak, be encouraged to the point of eating food sacrificed to idols? So by your knowledge those weak believers for whom Christ died are destroyed. But when you thus sin against members of your family, and wound their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ. Therefore, if food is a cause of their falling, I will never eat meat, so that I may not cause one of them to fall.

Sunday 7:00am (verses 1, 2, 4), and 9:00am

GOSPEL: Mark 1:21-28

Gospel Acclamation –

Alleluia! Alleluia!

They were astounded at this teaching for Jesus taught them as one having authority.

Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ,
according to Mark, chapter 1 beginning at the 21st verse.

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

They went to Capernaum; and when the sabbath came, he entered the synagogue and taught. They were astounded at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes. Just then there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, ‘What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God.’ But Jesus rebuked him, saying, ‘Be silent, and come out of him!’ And the unclean spirit, throwing him into convulsions and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. They were all amazed, and they kept on asking one another, ‘What is this? A new teaching—with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him.’ At once his fame began to spread throughout the surrounding region of Galilee.

This is the Gospel of the Lord,
Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

ADDRESS:

INTERCESSIONS: Let us pray for the world and for the Church:

Father, we pray for unity among all people of faith. We pray for all Bishops, Priests, Deacons and all who serve God in his Church. We ask you to bless our clergy, Daniel as he travels and also Don and Linda that they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

Lord God, grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you.
Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake,

that our works may find favour in your sight, and your Name may be glorified by all people.

Father, we pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world; give them a desire for peace and justice in their countries. Guide the people of our land, especially on this Australia Day weekend, that we may honour one another and serve the common good.

Father, we give thanks for this wonderful earth which God has given us, and for the wisdom and will to conserve it,

that we may use its resources rightly, in the service of others and to your honour and glory.

Merciful God we pray for those for whom this day will be long and painful, for those in hospital or ill at home, those struggling with despair or depression and for all who care for them.

Comfort and heal all who suffer, give them courage and hope in their troubles, and bring them the joy of your salvation.

Merciful God, we pray for the poor and the oppressed, for the unemployed and the destitute, for prisoners and captives, and for all who remember and care for them. Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble.

That they may be delivered from their distress.

Father, give to all who have departed, eternal rest;

Let light perpetual shine upon them and grant that we may also come to share your heavenly kingdom.

Father, Your Son shared the life of his home and family at Nazareth: we give thanks for his presence with us in our homes and in our lives.

Guide us in our relationships with family and neighbours, especially those in trouble or need and bless those who have guided and enriched our own lives.

Uncle Bill's Thoughts

People often think that something "far off" will make them happy. That moving to a new place or getting a different job or meeting someone new will change how they feel. The secret is to find happiness in the people and places that are close to you. See the beauty in the things that are nearby.

PARISH PANTRY: Operates from the Parish Centre (at the back of the Church) on 3 days per week—Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday from 10:00am to 1:00pm.

If you require any information please contact:

Fr Daniel 0490 370 211 or

Rita Hillier 3266 9200.

The Parish Pantry needs for this week are:

- Tins of Harvest Meals
- Tins of Tom Piper Meals
- Tins of Heinz Big Eats
- Tins of peas and carrots
- Beef 2 minute noodles

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

That time of year again! The AGM will be held on the 11th February, at 10:30am in the Church.

Nominations: for Parish Council must be submitted by Wednesday, 7th February, 2024. Forms are available at the Church door.

Motions: any other business to be voted on must be submitted in writing to Fr Daniel, or one of the Church Wardens by Sunday, 4th February 2024.

Janelle is still eagerly awaiting for all those reports to arrive so that she can compile the meeting booklet. Please submit the reports by 1st February, as a Word document, via email to office@allsaintschermside.org.au.

WOMEN'S SPIRITUALITY GROUP: A group of ladies are interested in starting a group to meet twice a month (Monday 10:00am?) to support each other in prayer and study.

Please contact Jan Edwards or Pru Haldane for more information.

'Interest sheet' at the Church door.
